2023 Volunteer Information

Volunteers receive complimentary registration and will be able to attend the all plenary morning sessions and, depending on their volunteer role, many of the breakout sessions. Please email us at conference@childrenandnature.org to sign up and receive a registration comp code.

Volunteer Roles

- Shuttle bus checker at Denver International Airport (Monday, June 12)
- Registration, check in and helpdesk support
- Breakout room host
- Greeting and wayfinding
- AV support
- Roving/on-call support

Role Descriptions

Bus checker at Denver International Airport (DIA) Monday, June 12
- Free shuttle buses will leave DIA for the YMCA of the Rockies at 1, 2, 3, 4, and 6 PM
- Confirm bus rider reservations, manage for late arrivals, stay in contact with staff in Estes Park as needed
- Detailed instructions will be provided to volunteers by June 5

Registration and Help Desk:
- Help with set up, greeting and welcoming
- Help people connect with the appropriate person to get their questions answered

Room Host Responsibilities:
- Arrive 10 minutes before the session start time
- Ensure the session name is visible at the door
- Greet people as they come in
- Direct people to other sessions as needed (each host will have a program and map)
- Help people find seats and close the door when the session starts
- Help latecomers find seats or let them know the session is full
- During the session, assist the speaker with any needs and/or notify the support team if the room is too cold or hot, any lighting issues, etc.
Greeter/Wayfinder:
- Greeters will be stationed by Ruesch Auditorium, Longs Peak and Emerald Lodges
- Greeters will each have a map on hand to direct people around the YMCA campus in particular to the registration/help desk, lodges for breakout sessions and plenary sessions

AV Support:
- Help speaker load ppt to computer if needed
- Provide tech support throughout the session as needed
- Call AV tech support as needed

Roving/On-Call Support - check-in at the registration desk to assist where needed